Meeting Notes 1. Orchestra - minicamp The camp for middle schoolers took place two weeks ago; it was a small turnout, but students did a great job. Ms. Lewis is brainstorming ideas for advertising for next year's camp to get more participants. - ERO auditions and clinic Only seven students were selected from GH; this is less than "usual" because the venue stage is smaller than in previous years. - field trip planning/payment form Autumn has booked the hotel and bus; forms are due Tuesday.	Action Items

- Placement auditions are underway, ending Thursday after school. Ms. Lewis is brainstorming ideas on how to recruit students from GHHS to join the orchestra program.

2. Visual Arts

-Superintendent 100 Day Message Five GH students painted works to reflect Dr. Taylor's five goals; the students painted on stage during the event. The art was presented at the midyear graduation.

-Awards Scholastic winners were announced, along with Jr. Women's Club winners; a couple students are moving on to State level competition. Cary Arts Society award 1st place in 3D art to a GH student. Gifts of Gold show is coming up.
